Welcome to new students!
The Library is open to student members of all four Inns of Court. We offer a quiet and professional environment, perfect for studying. Members of staff can assist you with legal research, and we’re happy to give tours of the Library at any point in the year. Plus our document supply service has a reduced rate for students.

We enjoyed meeting so many of you at the City Law School Postgraduate welcome Fair, and at the Gray’s Inn Introductory Evening. There were a lot of sign-ups for the Library Bulletin, and we would like to congratulate the lucky student who won a £25 Amazon gift card for doing so! And a final reminder that it’s not too late to collect a tote bag of Gray’s Inn goodies, if you would like one!

Space Law Display
Did you know that Air and Space Law is one of our specialisms? We have a display of some space law material in the Library to celebrate this year being the 50th anniversary of the Apollo 11 Moon landing.

Space law textbooks can be found in the Library at classmark 67.5 and all resources relating to space law can be found on our Catalogue.

New Books
New in the Library this month is the 3rd edition of Court of Protection Handbook: A Users’ Guide. This book addresses in detail the practice and processes of the Court of Protection. In addition, it is supported by a website which provides links to statutory materials, precedent orders, links to useful online resources, and updates to the practice and procedure of the Court.

Further new acquisitions can be browsed via the Library Catalogue.
